

Job Pilots (Einstiegslotse)

Newly arrived migrants on their way to a new job

Are you new in Germany?

Your next goal is integrating yourself in the German job market?

You understood already that reaching this goal means a long way ahead with many obstacles?

Despite recognizing those obstacles you still want to achieve job success?

You are ready to fight and engage yourself in order to reach this success?

This is the right time for you! What you need now is an experienced job pilot, a job pilot able to stand by your side and offer valuable experience and information. We are job pilots with 15 years of experience in helping migrants integrate into the German job market.

Our offer is long-term

- We offer six months long actively engaged guidance.
- We help you develop your own particular plan so you can find a permanent job.
- Our team is always there to support you and together we remove the obstacles blocking your path.
- We will support you in finding job experience, internships, learning the German language, orienting yourself in your new field of work, finding social contacts in the city of Cologne and much more.

All this is done voluntarily.

There will be absolutely no costs for you.

Join us once a week.

You don't need to know any German!

We speak your language and understand your culture.

You will feel comfortable with us.
