

Entry guide

New immigrants on their way to find a job

Your goal is integration into German society?
You are ready to give your best to achieve this?

Then you need an experienced guide who will assist you and offer you something special!

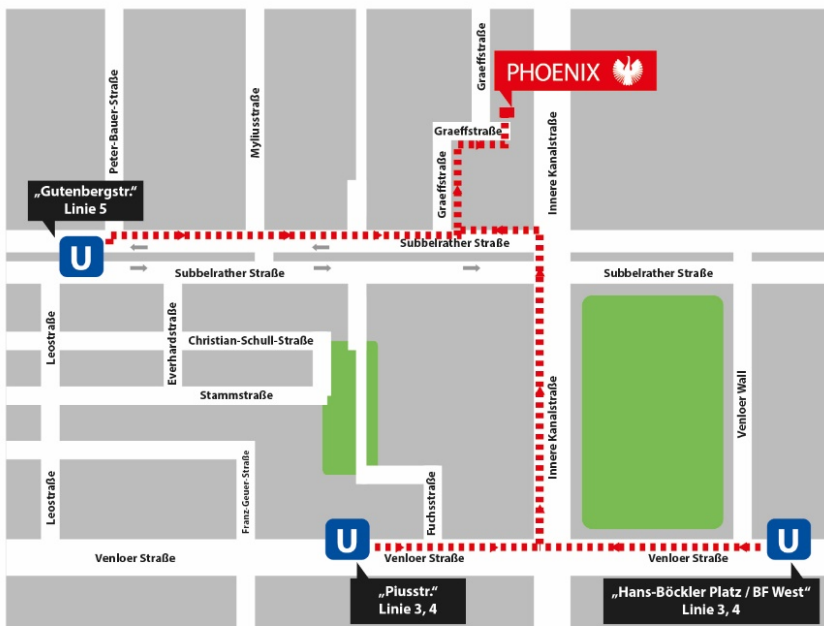

We provide:

- A long-term (up to 6 months) activating personal counselling and assistance with your integration in professional and personal matters;
- Appointments that fit your current situation;
- Professional orientation incl. job search;
- Support in personal and family crises;
- Escort to various institutions and help with the filling in of forms

We can help you e.g. to recognize your qualifications or search for a suitable German course; to finish your high school education or search for vocational training or start your own business. We will support you if you are looking for a place to stay, trying to adjust culturally or having communication difficulties.

You don't need any knowledge of German!

We speak your language and understand your culture.
